

EXPLORERS HOLD SWIM BARBECUE

Saturday night, April 23, Explorer Post 219 held its monthly social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Dumont, 2765 Arlington avenue, enjoying an evening of swimming in the private pool, dancing and a barbecue.

Assisting the Dumonts were

Explorer Advisor William Sells and Mrs. Sells; Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Wilkes, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Canning. Explorers and their dates enjoying the affair were: Fred Cameron and Barbara Rispoli; James Cameron and Betty Rispoli; Frank Montez and Barbara Westermann; Chuck Schauwecker and Joan Revell; John Delsigne and Margie Griffo; Bob Chapman and Jean McNeil; Bill Sells and Ginny Sandstrom; Jack McNeil and Sandra Canning. Tom and Gerry Wilkes joined in the fun.

SCOUT PARTY... Members of Explorer Post 219X and friends were treated to a barbecue and swim party Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al Dumont, 2765 Arlington. Being "encouraged" into the water by Fred Cameron is Jack McNeil. In the water are (l-r) Barbara and Betty Rispoli, Barbara Westermann, Jean McNeil, Joan Revell, Chuck Schauwecker, Frank Montez, and James Cameron.

Magician Coming to Crenshaw

Larry Nelson, known as "The Children's Magician" will present his "Bag O' Tricks" at Crenshaw school on April twenty-ninth. Considered an expert at entertaining children, his repertoire will include such bits of whimsy as "The Giant Dwarf," "Run Rabbit Run," "The Balloon Mystery," "Flight of the Doves," and many others. A nominal admission charge will go to the P-TA treasury. Performances will be at 7 and 8 p.m.

SIGNAL...

(Continued From Page 1) cere thanks from their hearts for this support in the behalf of safety for their children," he concluded. Supervisor Hahn said that the remodeling of the park entrance has now been completed and that work has begun on installing the signals which will allow traffic to enter the park directly from Yukon. Push-button signal controls will be installed for the benefit of pedestrians, and especially the thousands of children who will use Alondra Park during the spring and summer months.

CIVITAN...

(Continued From Page 1) company; treasurer, William Van de Wetering, of Van and Chuck's Service; sergeant-at-arms, Detective Captain Ernest M. Ashton; directors, Floyd Devore, John Judson and Francis J. Sandle. The club meets Thursday nights, and will participate in the California-Arizona District convention of Civitan International in San Pedro Hacienda on May 13 and 14.

MUNICIPAL COURT COMMITTEE CHOSEN

A steering committee to promote a municipal court for Torrance was appointed Tuesday night by Mayor Albert Isen. Serving on the committee will be Councilman Nick Dralle, Boris Woolley, attorney; Henry Kreeger, American Standard; Dr. Gerald Eastham; Fred Hansen, president, JayCee; Frank Burk and Robert Muir. Serving as ex-officio member will be Dick Newton of Supervisor Burton W. Chace's office. Torrance is now eligible to have its own court and the City Council has asked the Board of Supervisors to declare Torrance a municipal court district. The Board of Supervisors is presently studying the matter and awaiting a report.
